7 Wins on the Symetra Tour

Currently a teaching professional at Tres Rios Golf Course in Goodyear, Ariz., Atsedes finished third on the Golf Channel's 2008 Big Break show in Hawaii.

"I grew up in the restaurant business. My first love was cooking. I cooked for my father and went on to cook at the Outback in my twenties. I have always wanted to go Alaska to fish, I have great memories as a kid going smelting with my Uncle. I guess my love for cooking and fishing go together. Golf, cooking, and fishing with good friend would be a great vacation."
